

I am in favor of the FCC granting the BellSouth petition to not force it to share lines with competing competitors.

They own it, they have the right to use it in whatever manner they see fit :).

Thanks for your time